COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, 9TH AUGUST 1877.

We have no improvement to report in the state of general business here, on the contrary, the past week has been, if possible, even quieter than the previous one, Saturday and Monday having been holidays in England. Moreover, there is no mitigation in the two leading influences which depress trade more than anything else at present—the uncertainty about home politics, and the famine in the country. Lord Salisbury's speech at the Conservative meeting in London on the 7th instant is certainly an assurance that the English Government will try their utmost to remain neutral in the struggle between Russia and Turkey, but a very general feeling prevails in business circles that the course of events will ultimately render the continuance of such an attitude impossible, and so long as this idea exists, trade must continue to suffer. As regards the great distress prevailing on this side of India, we regret we cannot write much more hopefully. Prospects in the Bombay Presidency are slightly more favourable, except in Guzerat, where the continued absence of rain is doing serious injury, but in Madras the distress is extreme. There is still time for a change in the weather to work a great improvement in the grain crops, and a good rainfall with the N. E. Monsoon in October might avert another year of actual famine, but even under the most favourable circumstances the effect of the last six months cannot be expected to disappear in a day, and we must therefore be prepared for trade being unfavourably affected for some time to come, so far at least as imports are concerned. Exports might, and probably would, at once revive, should the crops after all turn out fairly well, but the purchasing power of the distressed districts must be seriously reduced for at least another season, and the consumption of such articles as Piece Goods proportionately circumscribed. Nor is it alone the external trade of the country which will suffer. Already the local mills have begun to feel the effects of the falling off in the demand for their manufactures, and the possibility of short time having to be resorted to has been canvassed in more than one quarter, while the shares of most of the companies have given way in price very rapidly of late.

Actual transactions during the past week have been insignificant to a degree. Liverpool advices have been very dull, and there has consequently been nothing done in Cotton for export, while supplies of Wheat and Seeds are so small, owing to the continued block on the railways, that there is no possibility of extensive operations in these articles irrespective altogether of the question of price. Imports are absolutely stagnant. Money is easy, Sterling Exchange firm, Government Paper dull, Shares depressed. Homeward Freights are almost nominal, £1-10 per ton being the rate to-day by steamer for Liverpool.

At the weekly biddings for Council drafts in London yesterday the usual amount of £265,000 was offered in bills only and allotted as follows:—£163 000 to Calcutta, £100,000 to Bombay, and £2,000 to Madras, all at an average of 1s. 3⅛d., tenders at that rate on Calcutta and Madras receiving 77 per cent., and on Bombay in full. These figures—which are about what people here had generally anticipated—show an advance of barely ⅛d. per rupee as compared with the previous biddings, and in sympathy with this, Bar Silver has recovered to 54⅛d. per oz., at which it lays down equivalent to about 1s. 8 13/16d. per rupee. Large purchases of the metal continue to be made in London for this market, so that it is evident supplies are still large.

MONEY.—The last published statement of the Bank of Bombay for the week ending on the 4th instant showed no important movement, the Cash Balance being only increased by 5½ lacs. There was nothing in this to affect the market, and the Directors made no alteration at yesterday's Board Meeting in their advertised rates of discount and interest, which still stand at 5 per cent. on short-dated Bank Bills and Fixed Loans against Government Paper, and 6 per cent. on Demand Loans and Cash Credits. In the open market Money is easy, and accommodation is freely offered at 4 per cent. per annum, nor is there any apparent likelihood of an advance so long as business here continues in its present dull state. The future, however, is much more uncertain, dependent as it is in a great measure on the out-turn of the crops, and unless prospects improve materially, there seems a probability of a very unsettled market, and possibly wide fluctuations when the next season sets in.

EXCHANGE.—The transactions in Sterling for this mail have been insignificant in amount, but, owing to the tenor of advices from Calcutta, a firm feeling has prevailed throughout, and an advance of 1/16d. per rupee has established in Bank Bills. Business opened on Saturday at the closing quotations for last steamer, 1s. 8 13/16d. for demand Bank Bills and 1s. 9¼d. for 3 months' sight Credits, and these rates remained without quotable fluctuation until Tuesday morning when a rise of 1/16d. took place on Private Bills, which was followed in Bank Paper on Wednesday. This morning, after the result of the biddings for Council drafts became known, one Bank came out as a seller at a further advance of 1/16d., but withdrew again very early in the day, leaving the closing quotations as follows:—Bank Bills on demand 1s. 8¾d., 6 months' sight 1s. 9 3/16d.; Credits, 3 months' sight 1s. 9¼d., 6 months' 1s. 9 5/16d.; Documents, 3 months' sight 1s. 9 3/16d., 6 months' 1s. 9⅜d. per rupee. At these figures the market, although fairly steady, is not particularly strong, and it is worthy of notice that the Banks still keep out of the market as sellers of forward delivery at anything over current rates, but whatever the tendency may be here, we must continue to be led by Calcutta, where the larger business is now doing, while as regards the more distant future it is of very little use speculating so much depending on influences of which we are unable as yet to form any estimate—the out-turn of the crops, &c.

On Calcutta, a moderate business has been done this week at 3/16 per cent. premium for demand and ⅜ per cent. discount for 60 days' sight, which are still the ruling quotations.

On China, there is nothing doing, and the quotation is quite nominal at Rs. 229 per 100 dollars for 60 days' sight Mercantile Bills.

From Hong-Kong, the latest quotationsfor 6 months' sight Bank Bills on London is 3s. 11¼d. per dollar, and from Shanghai 5s. 4¼d. per tael.

GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.—A slightly firmer tendency was apparent in the early part of the week, but business never went beyond small purchases by private investors, and the market closes dull at about the figures quoted for last steamer, say:—Fours Rs. 96 to Rs. 96½. Fours-and-a-half Rs. 96½; Fives-and-a-half Rs. 102½ to Rs. 102¾.

SHARES.—Rather more firmness has been apparent this afternoon in Spinning shares, and in some instances there is a slight recovery in prices, but otherwise the week has been characterised by great depression and with a few exceptions our list of quotations shows a serious decline. Bank of Bombays have been firm at an improvement of 1¼ per cent., the closing price being 37½ per cent. premium. In other Bank shares there is no quotable alteration. Land shares have been out of favour, and we quote a fall of Rs. 50 in Colaba and Mazagon, and Rs. 5 in Frere and Fort Canning. In Press Companies there has been next to nothing done, and the only changes are an advance of Rs. 10 in Broach Cotton Co., and a decline of Rs. 10 in Bersi and Rs. 25 in Mofussil Co. The unfavourable crop reports from up-country are exercising at most depressing influence on the demand for local-made Goods and Yarns, so much so that a considerable number of the mills have latterly been accumulating stocks, which, it is to be feared, they will find some difficulty in clearing off at paying prices. In view of this investors latterly have shown a strong disposition to realise, and values have steadily receded, the only exceptions to the general rule being such companies as are held in few hands. We quote a fall of Rs. 5 per share in Broach Mills and Mazagon, Rs. 10 in Hydrabad, Mandvie Spinning and Nicol Manufacturing Company, Rs. 15 in Bombay United, Coorla, and Sholapore, Rs. 20 in Sassoon and Soonderdas, Rs. 25 in Albert Mills, Alliance, Jewraz Balloo, Khandesh, Madras United, and Morarjee Goculdas, Rs. 30 in Khatao Mavconjee, Rs. 35 in Hindustan and Manockjee Petit, Rs. 40 in Oriental, Rs. 45 in Alexandra, Rs. 50 in Madras Spinning, Rs. 55 in Colaba, Rs. 60 in Fleming and Prince of Wales, Rs. 70 in Dhurrumsey and Great Eastern, and Rs. 75 in Bhownugger Mills. Amongst the Miscellaneous Companies the only change is an advance of Rs. 5 in Bombay Burmah Trading.

IMPORTS.

The depression in our PIECE GOODS market goes on increasing from day to day, and small as was the business we had to report last week, the clearances since last mail have been even less, the total being only estimated at 800 packages from the bazaar and 400 packages from first hands. Prices as quoted are in most instances nominally unaltered, there having been no business to test them, but where sales have been made a decline has had to be accepted, as, for instance, in 9 lb. 45-inch Grey Shirtings which are As. 2, 2⅛ lb Madapollams which are 1 anna, 6¼ lb. 60-inch Madapollams which are As. 2, and Turkey Red Prints which are As. 2½ per piece lower. Stocks of nearly every description are rapidly accumulating in the hands of dealers, and although they show great firmness under the circumstances, and decline to force sales, there can be no doubt that the position is inherently weak to the last degree. There are of course very few orders going home at present, and this cannot fail to reduce shipments from the other side, but even if supplies were to cease altogether for a time, the demand is now, and promises to be, so restricted that we could scarcely hope for any material improvement in prices. The best that we can now hope for in the greater portion of the famine-stricken districts is that another season of famine may be averted, but the distress is too widespread to admit of warrant expectations of an early reaction in Piece Goods.

TWIST.—We can merely repeat our report of last week under the same head. Stocks are not proportionately so heavy as Goods, but the demand is so limited that prices are quite nominal. We make no change in our usual quotations, but any attempt to force sales would lead to a material reduction. Local Yarns are accumulating in the hands of the various mills, the offtake both for local consumption and export latterly having been small. A few days good rain up-country would probably bring dealers into the market again, but it would take some time under the most favourable circumstances to overtake the daily increasing production.

METALS.—Copper.—Transactions during the week have been unimportant, and prices are nominally unchanged. The same remark applies to Yellow Metal, which is dull and slow of sale. In Iron a downward tendency still prevails, and our quotations are to a great extent nominal.

COALS.—The greatest dulness still prevails, the only buyers in the market being weak native speculators, and we have not heard of a single sale to arrive during the week. Nominally the arrival quotations via Cape are as follows:—Davison's West Hartley Rs. 17, Laird's Welsh Hartley Rs. 15, Watson's Hartley Rs. 15½, Cardiff Rs. 16, per ton alongside.

EXPORTS.

COTTON.—The Liverpool advices have again been most discouraging in tone with a decline in prices of 1/16d. to ⅛d. per lb., and our market in sympathy has been quite stagnant, not a single operation having been reported for export since last mail left. Prices have declined Rs. 2 to Rs. 3 per candy, and this has brought some of the local mills out as buyers again both for ready and October-November delivery, but altogether the purchases have only been about 4,000 bales of all kinds.

As respects the New Crop the reports are somewhat variable. In the Berars the plants are doing well, and in Khandeish and the Southern Mahratta Country a slight improvement has taken place, but from the Broach and Dhollera districts great complaints come of the absence of rain, and should an early fall not take place, there can be little doubt that serious and irretrievable damage will be done.

The Clearances for sea during the week have been 4,144 bales, making a total of 790,107 bales since 1st January, against 869,110 bales for the corresponding period last year.

The Receipts from up-country to date are as follows:—

	1877.	1876.	1875.
For the week	1,701	2,518	1,668
Total since 1st Sept.	1,129,982	1,073,903	1,332,911

The following are to-day's quotations for New Cotton with the equivalents in Sterling Cost and Freight to Liverpool, via Canal, without commission:—

Full-pressed—
New Broach Ginned F. G. F.	Ready	Rs. 203 =	9¾d.
,, Omrawuttee Good (nominal)	do.	,, 194 =	8½d.
,, Do. Fully Good Fair	do.	,, 190 =	8 3/16d.
,, Do. Good Fair	do.	,, 186 =	8 1/16d.

,, Do. Good Fair	do.	,, 192 =	8 3/16d.
,, Do. Fully Fair	do.	,, 187 =	8 1/16d.

SEEDS.—Linseed.—Prices at home are again higher, and this combined with limited supplies here has induced a further advance of 1 anna per cwt., to-day's quotation being Rs. 6-12 per cwt., buyers. Of Rapeseed there is no stock to speak of, and the quotation is nominal at Rs. 7-10 to Rs. 7-12 per cwt.

WHEAT is being largely dealt in for the Famine Districts, but of export qualities stocks are very small, and few transactions have taken place. For Best White we quote Rs. 38, Mixed Rs. 36½ to Rs. 37½, per candy.

HIS EXCELLENCY the Governor and suite accompanied by the Hon'ble J. Gibbs will leave Poona for Bombay by the early train to-morrow, to be present at the meeting convened by the Sheriff of Bombay to perpetuate the memory of the late Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy.

THE Envoy from Kashgar and his suite, accompanied by Captain Molloy, left Charing-cross on the evening of Friday, 20th ult. by the mail train on their return to Kashgar. Mr. Shaw, the general manager of the South Eastern Company, was present at the departure, and Mr. Fitzgerald, of the India Office, accompanied his excellency as far as Dover. This sudden departure was doubtless caused by the news which has reached England, announcing the death of the Ameer of Kashgar.

THE visit of Lord Lytton to the famine districts of Bombay and Madras has caused some important changes in the Bengal Secretariat. Mr. Stuart Bayley, from his special experience in famine matters, has been summoned to Simla and will accompany Lord Lytton during his tour. Mr. Horace Cockerell, Commissioner of the Burdwan division, will succeed Mr. Bayley as Secretary in the Bengal Office, and Mr. A. Smith, Magistrate of Jessor, officiates as Commissioner in the place of Mr. Cockerell.

THE Englishman :—The news that His Excellency the Viceroy is going immediately to inspect the distressed districts and to strengthen the action of the local Governments, will be received everywhere with the greatest satisfaction. The season is undoubtedly a trying one for such a journey; and there are also, doubtless, many political reasons that must render it very difficult for Lord Lytton to leave the seat of Government at the present time. Still, we believe there will not be two opinions as to the wisdom which has prompted the Viceroy's determination; and we are quite sure that the devotion to duty which is shown by it will be fully appreciated in every corner of the Empire. With all the preparations of Government, it is, we fear, now certain that its benevolent arrangements will be strained to the very utmost. The whole world will watch with deep anxiety for the result of increased exertions that will now, doubtless, be put forth to meet a calamity that threatens to be actually unprecedented both in extent and in duration.

THE East Indian Railway Company has given a grant of £2.000 to the widow and family of the late Mr. R. J. Rendel, Secretary, in consideration of the honourable and most efficient service rendered by him, extending over a period of 20 years.

A SECRETARY, on Rs. 1,000 a month, is to be appointed in connection with the management of religious endowments in the Madras Presidency, and a Brahmin official of some standing in the public service is mentioned as likely to be the first incumbent of the post.

LORD SILCHESTER has moved in the House of Lords for a copy of a protest by Major-General Colin Mackenzie, C. B., on the part of claimants to the undistributed portion of the Kirwee booty.

Vanity Fair says :—It has been decided that the promotion lists for the Indian and General Army shall be henceforth kept distinct. This is a good thing for the officers of the General Army, for were matters to remain as they are the Indian Generals would be in a large majority.

THE Whitehall Review says :—The Professorship of Hindustani at the Staff College, hitherto held by a civilian, is to made a military appointment, and has been accepted by Major J. Duncan, of the 102nd Fusiliers, an officer who has passed through the Staff College, and spent many years in India, where he devoted much time to the study of the native languages.

AN enthusiastic friend of "the son of a ruling Prince," who was about to commit matrimony, has written to a North-West paper the following amusing letter. The moral he draws is most commendable :—Mirza Ameeruddeen Furrukh, eldest son of H. H. the ruling Prince of Loharoo, will be married on Sunday, the 5th August. The marriage ceremony will be performed exactly like the European custom. Dinners and entertainments will be given in cold season, as the season at this time is very bad to the European officers and native gentlemen. H. H. is one of the most accomplished and enlightened Indian Chiefs, and I dare say he is the flower of the native community; and I trust that every Indian Chief will follow the model of marriage ceremony of this Prince. Simplicity is the best policy."

THE Times (July 18) says :—If we may trust the report that Yakoob Khan is dead, a striking figure has disappeared from Asiatic strife. To say that he was the greatest man in Central Asia would be to say little, for the rulers and leaders who fitfully appear on that troubled scene have to Western eyes almost as little individuality as so many kites and crows. But the Amir of Kashgar stood out from that throng of mediocrities. He had printed a distinct idea of his individuality even in Europe. He would infallibly have left a great name if he had lived somewhat earlier. His force of will, his unscrupulous ambition, and his powers as a soldier might have made him a Timour if Tartary had still been able to send forth conquering hordes. Nay, if the Russian conquests had delayed for a single generation, he might have changed the face of Central Asia as the founder of one great Mahomedan State embracing the whole of Turkestan. But his energy was kept within the bounds of Kashgar by the pressure of a European State. The true greatness of the man was seen in the fact that, while working on so remote a field, he made his power felt at Calcutta and St. Petersburg. . . . . The prospects of Kashgar are not bright now that it has lost the guidance of his intellect and will. The old elements of disunion will inevitably appear. He himself must have seen the danger to be very great before he would have nominated as his successor one of his lieutenants, Hakim Khan Tura, instead of any of his own sons. Another evidence of peril may probably be found in the fact that Hakim has declined the dangerous gift, and that it has thus fallen to the Attalik Ghazi's eldest son. Should the Chinese conquer Kashgar, the event would be welcome to the Anglo-Indians, as they believe that a great and comparatively stable State like China would be a better barrier against the wave of Russian invasion than an isolated native Government like that of Kashgar. For a time such may be the result; but, in any case a commanding political figure has disappeared from Central Asia in Yakoob Khan.

Truth says :—At the "Intelligence Department" of the Horse Guards, the impression prevails that the Turks will be able to hold a position about twenty-five miles from Constantinople against all the forces that the Russians can bring up against it.

Vanity Fair says that the Russian General commanding the Army of the Caucasus, now in Armenia, has set a price of 2000 roubles on General Sir Arnold Kemball's head.

THE ar-Raid, an Arabic paper published at Tunis, in a leading article headed, "The Believers, like a well-built House, support one another," adopting similes identical with those used by St. Paul in 1 Cor. xvi. 26 and Eph. ii. 21, insists on the duty of all Muslims at the present time to sympathize with one another, and to rally to the defence of their common faith and its representative chief, the Ottoman Sultan. Forbearing the most distant reflection on the creed of non-Muslims, the writer strives to stimulate the zeal and benevolence of his co-religionists. "You have doubtless heard," he says, "how the Hungarian Christians have come forward in aid of the Khalifate of Islam, and how many noble Englishwomen out of pure philanthropy have devoted themselves to collect funds for the Ottoman soldiery; and this is but one of the many good works in which they are always engaged. Should not such an example as this stir us up to zeal and self-denial in support of the Centre of the Khalifate? What are you about, O ye Tunisians? Makkah and Egypt, Indians and Kurds, Lahorians and Hungarians, and even Frenchmen are proffering their cooperation. As to India, when an appeal was made to our brethren there they responded to it most nobly, being moved thereto by that inward sympathy which should unite the hearts of all Muslims. Can you do better than follow their praiseworthy example?"

THE World says :—I see that Reouf Pasha, wrongly called Raouf by the newspapers, has gone from his place at Constantinople to take command of the Turkish Army of the Balkans. He was in England with the late Sultan Abdul Aziz, and he speaks French fluently. He is very unlike the generality of Turks in his habits, being an enthusiastic sportsman, fond of walking all day after birds, and being the husband of one wife only, to whom he is said to be very faithful. If any Turk can save the nation by energy and soldier-like qualities, Reouf is the man to do it.

THE Pall Mall Gazette says :—Tirnova—or, as it is variously spelled, Trnova, Tirnovo or Turnoff—where the head-quarters of the Emperor of Russia are to be established until the main body of the Russian army shall have crossed the Balkans, was formerly the residence of the Bulgarian Czars. At present it is a town of some 12,000 inhabitants, of whom the greater part are Bulgarians. The position of the town is exceedingly picturesque, the Jantra flowing round it in numerous bends. Ordinarily even in time of peace, the Turks keep 2,000 soldiers at Tirnova to suppress insurrections and maintain order in the surrounding districts, the population of which has always been troublesome. In 1836 and again in 1867 the inhabitants of Tirnova broke out into open revolt; but the risings were speedily suppressed and the leaders executed. In 1810 the town was occupied by a Russian force after the battle of Battin. Strategically Tirnova is a point of great importance, not only because from it diverge three of the principal passes leading across the Balkans from Bulgaria into the plains of Adrianople, but also because it bars the road which gives lateral communication along the foot of the northern spurs of the Balkans, and unites Schumla and Osman-Bazar with the towns of Plevna, Loratz Seki, and the western Bulgaria generally. The road from Sistova to Tirnova is about forty miles in length, traversing an undulating and fertile plain.

THE Militar-Wochenblatt continues its summary of the more recent military events in the East :—The losses suffered by the Russians during the passage of the Danube on the 27th of June amounted to 289 killed, 398 wounded, and 38 missing. On the 5th of July the Starodub, or 12th Regiment of Dragoons, occupied Biela, and on the 6th was followed thither by infantry. On the 5th of July, also, the Achtyr, or 12th Regiment of Hussars, and some Cossacks, came into collision with Tcherkess troops on the Jantra. The Tcherkess left 10 men dead on the field. The Russians lost two men killed and one officer and one man wounded. On the 7th of July General Gourko occupied Tirnova with cavalry and the 16th horse-artillery battery, driving back upon Osman-Bazar, eighty versts to the eastward of Tirnova on the road to Schumla, a Turkish force of 3,000 Nizams, a field battery, and a number of Redifs. On the 16th of July an official telegram was received in St. Petersburg, dated Tirnova, the 15th, announcing that on the evening of the 13th of July the advanced guard of the Russian army had crossed the Balkans without firing a shot. On the Asiatic theatre of war the corps of Erivan, under General Tergukassoff, reached the neighbourhood of Igdyr, on the 5th of July, intending to complete its supplies, and then march upon Bayazid, the garrison of which surrounded by twenty hostile battalions and 10,000 horsemen still held out. An official telegram since received announces that on the 16th of July General Tergukassoff gained a brilliant victory under the walls of Bayazid, and succeeded in releasing the beleaguered garrison, utterly routing the besieging force, which fled in confusion, leaving behind four guns. The citadel has been evacuated and the place destroyed.

A WRITER in the World says :—I hear that Lord Napier is waking them all up at Gibraltar. He is full of work, and as active as ever—out and about every morning at five, looking into everything himself, and carrying out many needful changes and reforms. The 'Rock' is too important a place to be neglected in these ticklish times, and it is a comfort to know so good a man commands it.

THE World :—That gallant old soldier Sir Fenwick Williams, who gained his title from the fortress he so nobly defended, has expressed his admiration at the way in which Kars has held out in the present campaign. The principal redoubts and lines of fortification are at points he himself considered vital in 1855.

THE World :—Max, in the Chalet of Adolphe Adam, sings, 'Dans le service de l'Autriche, le militaire n'est pas riche.' Neither is he in France, as a marshal only receives 29,520 francs (1180£.) per month; a general of division 19,440 francs (778£.); a colonel of artillery 8,882 francs (356£.); a captain 3,708 francs (149£.); a lieutenant 2,628 francs (108£.); an infantry sub-lieutenant 2,268 francs (90£.), or about five shillings per day.

THE match for the English Lawn Tennis championship terminated on the 19th of July, when Mr. Spencer Gore became the winner of the gold prize (value £12 12s.) and the holder of the Challenge Cup (value 25gs.) until next year. Mr. W. Marshall and Mr. C. G. Heathcote, having tied for second and third places, played off the tie. Mr. W. Marshall won two sets to love, and takes the silver prize (value £7 7s.); Mr. C. G. Heathcote received the third prize (value £3 3s.)

THURSDAY, the 20th July, was a great day at Wimbledon—the greatest undoubtedly, on the whole, of all days during the present meeting. Many of the most exciting competitions were crowded into a single afternoon, and spectators were only at a loss which amongst so many interesting contests they should attend in preference to the others. For the fashionable element there was the Lords and Commons' match to be watched. For university men the struggle for the Chancellor's Plate. The host of juvenile visitors which invaded the camp was naturally clustered round the performers in the Ashburton Shield competition; while finally, the true critics and real business like part of the audience was absorbed entirely in the grand contest between the three kingdoms for the Elcho Shield. In every one of these matches there was involved that spirit of partisanship which lends its peculiar influence to all the fashionable displays of the year, and to which Lord's Ground, Henley Regatta, and the Easter boat race all owe their extraordinary popularity. The result of the three minor competitions was to hand over the prize vases from the custody of the Speaker to that of the Chancellor, to take the Ashburton Shield from Winchester to Cheltenham, and to give the Chancellor's Plate to the elder University as the prize of a victory won by only 4 points in 537. The principal event—the Elcho competition—deserves more special notice, and may be considered as satisfactory in its way as the shooting for the Queen's Prize some days ago. The Irish team won magnificently with a score far higher than has ever been made in the match before, and a hundred above that of England, which was second. Scotland, which had beaten England easily at the shorter range, fell back at 900 yards, and was completely distanced at the long range, thus taking a place formerly unknown to her at the bottom of the list.

BOMBAY WEEKLY FAMINE REPORT.

THE Famine Statement for the past week shows an increase of over 13,000 on relief works —chiefly in Sholapúr. The rainfall has been favourable in the Southern Collectorates. Elsewhere in the Deccan, general but insufficient showers. The crop prospects in the Bombay Presidency are not very unfavourable, but prices of grain, though slightly easier, are maintained at a high level by the demand in Madras. There has been a good fall of rain throughout the Bombay Presidency, still much is wanted; its protracted absence retards improvement in the general condition of the people. Anxiety felt as regards Kattywar and Guzerat, in which sufficient rain is withheld. Precautionary measures are being taken there. Railway traffic is impeded by want of engine power, but it is better than last week.

VICEROY'S MOVEMENTS.

THE following information respecting H. E. the Viceroy's movements on his projected visit to the famine districts of Madras and Bombay has come to hand. His Excellency will leave Simla on the 16th inst., reach Umballa on the morning of the 17th inst., leave the same night and proceed direct to Jubbulpur, arriving there Sunday morning, the 19th. He will leave Jubbulpur the same evening at 6 o'clock and reach Poona at 10 o'clock on Monday night. His Excellency will probably remain at Poona about three days, but will not visit Bombay.

RAIN REPORTS.

(BY TELEGRAPH.)

AUGUST 8TH.—A slight fall of rain is reported from Madras and Kistna; none of any importance anywhere in the Bombay Presidency. Prospects in Guzerat cause much anxiety. Slight showers have fallen in the Mysore districts with beneficial effect. Still no rain at Hyderabad. Rain has generally fallen in the Central Provinces. In Rajputana it is urgently needed. The recent fall in the North-West was nearly general, but was insufficient for the rice crop. Rain is needed in Fyzabad, where prices are rising. In Assam the weather is seasonable and prospects good.

RAIN IN GUZERAT.

A CORRESPONDENT informs us that the fall of rain at Seaforde on the 7th inst. was 1 inch 36 cents. Seaforde is in Guzerat, twenty miles south of Surat, and seven miles west of Nowsaree; and if the rainfall has been at all general, it will be a blessing.

HIGH COURT VACATION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Will you permit me to use your columns as a medium for suggesting that the next vacation of the High Court should commence from 1st of October? The new Civil Procedure Code which comes into operation on that date, effects such complete changes in many important points of law and practice, that an interregnum is highly desirable both for the mastery of its details and the proper adjustment of the machinery of the courts; and such an interregnum was, I believe, found necessary between the abolition of the late Supreme Court and the creation of the present High Court.

The sum of Rs. 12,00,047 in new coin was paid during the week; the balance left was Rs. 1,11,44,718. There is in addition bullion valued at Rs. 18,91,610 belonging to private individuals deposited in the Mint vaults and awaiting assay.

CHEATING BY PERSONATION.—Yesterday, a Marwarree sheroff, named Raja Gopal, a partner in the firm of Goma Pesta and Co., appeared before Mr. Nana Moroje and obtained a warrant for the arrest of a Brahmin, named Keshew Anunta, whom complainant charges with cheating by personation, in respect of a sum of Rs. 680, alleged to have been advanced to accused by complainant on the pledge of a deposit receipt for Rs. 700 at interest, which accused alleged was passed to him by the Chartered Bank of India, Australia, and China, and accused represented himself as Succaram Ananta Josey, to whom the said deposit receipt was passed by the said bank.

THE FATAL ACCIDENT TO DR. D. MACGREGOR.—Yesterday, at the Fort Police Court, Shaik Ahmed Mahomed Hoosein, the tindal of the prow which came in collision with Dr. D. Macgregor's jolly-boat, and resulted in Dr. Macgregor being drowned, was charged before Mr. Nana Morojee with navigating his vessel in a manner so rash and negligent as to endanger human life, and thereby causing the death of Dr. Dugald Macgregor in Bombay harbour on the morning of the 7th instant. The case was postponed for hearing to the 14th instant, and the prisoner held to bail in a sum of Rs. 1,000 in his own recognizances, and two sureties of Rs. 1,000 each.

CHEATING.—A Mahomedan, named Shaik Myboo Toorab, was yesterday convicted by Mr. W. Webb on two separate charges of voters on a preferred against him by Jaffer, woman, in respect of certain sums of money which the prisoner dishonestly induced complainant to deliver over, representing that the said sums were required by her husband, who is at present undergoing a term of imprisonment in H. M.'s Common Jail, for food and other necessaries, which the jailors refused to supply him with. He was sentenced to consecutive terms of six months' rigorous imprisonment. The same prisoner was further charged with conveying a letter from one of the prisoners of the jail, and on conviction he was fined Rs. 10.

MORTUARY RETURNS.—The total number of deaths registered during the week ending Tuesday, 7th August, 1877, was 681, being 5 more than in the preceding week, 272 more than the total of the week ending 8th August 1876, and 328 more than the mean of the corresponding period in the preceding five years. During the week 209 births were reported in the different districts of the city. The rate of mortality per 1,000 of the population was 53·41. There were 208 deaths from remittent fever which is 10 more than last week and 110 more above the same period last year. There were 96 deaths from cholera last week as compared with 75 during the previous week. The deaths from diseases of the respiratory system; diarrhœa, and dysentery were last week 49, 44, and 62 respectively, compared with 25, 23 and 24 last year.

DURING the past few weeks, the press has recorded an unusually long list of marine disasters. The steamers Meikong, Cashmere, and Kurrachee totally lost; the ship Phanton lost; the ship Codabux long overdue, and supposed to be lost with all hands; the steamer Kashgar broken down; a triangular collision between two ships and the tug Court Hey at Diamond Harbour; and, lastly, the grounding of the ship County of Inverness on the Middle Ground, and the consequent necessity of her having to return to Calcutta. The accident to the last-named vessel happened whilst she was being towed out to sea by the steamer Court Hey. When about two miles above the Lower Gasper Light, an eccentric in one of the steamer's wheels having given away, she was obliged to cast the ship off at once; sail was put on the ship as quickly as possible, but there was not sufficient wind to take her over to the eastward to counteract the set of the tide, and the anchor could not be let go, as she would probably have grounded on it as the tide fell. In this helpless condition she drifted down to the edge of the Middle Ground, where she commenced to bump. An hour after she first struck the steamer, having repaired damages, dropped down, and with some difficulty passed hawsers, and towed her back to Saugor, and from thence back to town. The bumping had so strained the ship that she sprung a leak, her after compartment filled, and she was making six inches of water an hour.

CRICKET.

A CRICKET match will be played to-day on the Gymkhana ground between an eleven of the Colaba Military under the captainship of Colonel Hogge, and an eleven of the Parsee Cricket Club. Play will commence at 10 in the morning. Both sides have good players, and an exciting match is expected.

ARRIVAL OF THE TURKISH ENVOY TO CABUL.

AHMET KHOULOUSSI EFFENDI, the Turkish Envoy to Cabul, arrived in Bombay by the mail steamer Khiva and landed at the Apollo Bundor at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. He is accompanied by Lall Shah, his assistant, a friend, and several attendants and servants, being twelve persons in all. Mr. Grant, the Municipal Commissioner, proceeded to the Khiva in a Government steam launch and accompanied the Envoy in it to the bunder, where the Hon. Mr. Rogey, Mr. Cummoo Sulleman, Mr. Vincent, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Brigadier General Aitchison, and about 50 Mahomedans were present. On landing at the bunder steps, the Envoy was received by the principal Mahomedan gentlemen. He then drove away in a carriage and pair with the Municipal Commissioner and Lall Shah, to the bungalow provided for their temporary residence. A salute of fifteen guns was fired from the Saluting Battery on his landing at the bunder.

A POSTAL CONCESSION.

By the following Postal notice, which was issued yesterday, it will be seen that the authorities have at length revoked an absurd rule in the matter of reporting newspapers at stations other than those at which newspapers are published. It may be remembered that we called attention, a short time since, to the prejudicial operation of this rule, both as it affected the interests of Government and the public, and we are happy to find that a more sensible arrangement than that so long in force hitherto is now adopted. We would call the attention of our readers to the alteration now made, as stated in the following notification, under the signature of the Post Master General :—

Hitherto when a newspaper was reposted in India at a place other than the place of publication, it lost its privilege as a registered newspaper, and had to be prepaid at two annas for every 10 tolas instead of half an anna, failing which it was treated as a letter. This has been altered, and registered newspapers can now be posted or reposted at any place; and provided that the registered number be shown outside, and the other conditions of newspapers, such as open covers, no writing allowed but the address, &c., be observed, the stamps to be affixed need only be at the rate of half an anna for every 10 tolas.

Officiating Post Master General.

In the rules published under Home Department Notification, dated the 21st August 1867, to regulate the submission, receipt, and transmission of memorials addressed to Her Majesty's Government, the following Rule VIII has been substituted for the rule bearing the same number, and is published :—"VIII.—No limit is fixed to the time within which an appeal from an act or order of the Governments in India must be preferred to the Home Government except in the case of appeals from a judicial decision in which the Judge is a Political Officer and in which the appeal ordinarily lies to Government in the Political Department. Such appeals (when a judicial decision of the nature referred to has been communicated to the party or parties concerned before the date of this Notification, he or they may appeal from such decision within 18 months from the date of this Notification) must be preferred within a period of twelve months from the date of communication to the persons concerned of the order to which objection is taken."

THE BOMBAY LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

THE Bombay Legislative Council met at Gunnesh Khind on Wednesday. H. E. the Hon'ble Sir Richard Temple, Bart., K.C.S.I., Governor of Bombay, presided. There were also present :—H. E. the Hon. Sir Chas. Staveley, K.C.B.; the Hon. J. Gibbs; the Hon. L. R. Ashburner, C.S.I.; the Hon. the Advocate General (Mr. Marriott); the Hon. Major General, M. K. Kennedy; the Hon. E. W. Ravenscroft, C.S.I.; the Hon. S. S. Bengalee; and the Hon. Col. W. C. Anderson.

THE MUNICIPAL INDEMNITY BILL.

The Hon. Mr. Gibbs said he must ask His Excellency the President, under Rule 43, to suspend the Rules of the Council for the purpose of enabling him to bring in Bill No. 5 of 1875.

The rules having been suspended,

The Hon. Mr. Gibbs further said—With your Excellency's permission I beg now, first to ask leave to bring in, and next to move the first reading of, Bill No. 5 of 1877—a Bill to validate the appointment of certain members and for the temporary continuance of the Municipal Corporation of the city of Bombay. Your Excellency and the members of the Council are already aware that the Municipal elections, which were to have commenced on the 26th of July, have been postponed. The circumstances are briefly, I believe, these. The Municipal Commissioner received notice from certain ratepayers objecting to one gentleman whose name appeared in the list of candidates for the Corporation, on the plea that he was not eligible because he had not paid taxes rate and cess for lighting rates. The Municipal Commissioner considered it necessary to take the Advocate General's opinion on the point, and the honourable and learned gentleman's opinion was that undoubtedly the objection was a valid one under the Act, the gentleman objected to not having paid both owners' and occupiers' rates. I may mention that it was intended, when the Municipal Bill was brought in, that the elections should not be confined to the owners of house property in Bombay, but that persons who paid taxes are called occupiers' rates should also be eligible to vote and qualified to become members of the Corporation. I may here, in passing, quote from one of the speeches made during the proceedings of the Council when the Bill was introduced. The then Advocate-General said that what he understood is wanted is that those who are not owners, but are only rate-payers, should be able to make their voices heard on questions of the administration of the local funds." When the original Municipal Act of 1872 was passed and sent to receive the assent of the Viceroy, it being a very long Bill, a considerable time passed before the Legislative Department of the Government of India could go through it, and when it was received back with the Viceroy's assent, a period of about six months had elapsed, the Act had passed, and it became necessary to pass a short Act to alter the dates, so that the elections might take place. Accordingly, Act II. of 1873 was brought in by my honourable friend Mr. Ravenscroft, and passed at a special meeting of the Legislative Council, at which the Rules were suspended as they have been on the present occasion. That Act enacted that one qualification of a member of the Municipal Corporation of Bombay should be that he must be a voter. Section 54 of the following Municipal rates, viz :—the house rate, and police and lighting rates. These include both the occupiers' and the owners' rates. This was not the intention of the original Act, but the word and had the effect no doubt, of making the legal qualification for becoming a member of the Corporation, and also for voting for the payment of all these three rates. On the occasion of the first election which took place, the Municipal Commissioner made out his list of voters on the principle that others were also equally eligible to vote and to be members of the Corporation, and the election of 1873 was conducted accordingly. That election was good for two years. In 1875, when the next election took place, the same principle was acted upon, and that would no doubt have been the case this year had not this objection been taken and supported by the legal opinion of the Advocate General. The Advocate General will no doubt tell the Council his reasons for that opinion. I believe he foresaw that if the elections were allowed to take place, the result would be an enormous amount of litigation, the nature of which he will be better able to explain than I shall, and he considered that, under all the circumstances it would be better to postpone the elections and bring in a short Bill legalising the two Corporations which have existed, and that as we are about to introduce a Bill amending the general Municipal law, which will take a few months to pass, the shortest plan would be, by the short Act legalising the two Corporations that have existed, to continue the last Corporation till the 31st of December, or until such further period as may be notified in the Government Gazette, so that the amended Bill may be passed and become law before any further elections take place. I may mention that the amended Bill is found chiefly on amendments that have been proposed by the Town Council, who have gone very carefully into the question, and one of their first amendments is that in this section the word "and" should be omitted and "or" substituted. With these few observations, I will now request permission to bring in this Bill No. 5 of 1877.

The Honourable the Advocate General—According to the section of the existing Act as it stands, unless a person pays the whole of the three rates mentioned, viz., the house rate, police rate, and lighting rate, he is not qualified. Now, the house rate according to the Act, is payable by the owners and the police and lighting rates by the occupiers; and the result of course is that no person can be legally qualified unless he occupies the exceptional position of being in actual occupation of his own premises. I was informed by the Municipal Commissioner that according to this, a very large majority of the persons hitherto considered eligible in Bombay would be disqualified from becoming either members of the Corporation or electors. Europeans in Bombay being almost without exception only the occupants and not the owners of their houses, the result as regards them would be that, except those gentlemen who happen to be Fellows of the University, no European would be eligible as a member of the Corporation or an elector. Under those circumstances, it appeared to me that to proceed with the elections would be to produce a very considerable amount of litigation, because people in Bombay would be perfectly ready to dispute the qualification of members of the Corporation in the law courts, and I did not think that was desirable. Another result of the elections being proceeded with would have been that there would not have been a fair representation, by the members of the Corporation, of the citizens of Bombay, as was certainly the intention of the framers of the Municipal Act. The intention of the Act would thus have been defeated, and possibly the persons elected might not have been altogether desirable. For these reasons, it seemed to me very desirable that the elections should be postponed, and I advised the Municipal Commissioner to that effect. Then, the elections having been postponed, there were two courses open—either to amend the original Act and make the qualification the payment of owners' or occupier's rates, or to continue the present Corporation in existence by such an Act as is now proposed. It appeared to me that the last course was the most desirable, and for this reason, that besides those I have mentioned, there were other objections. One was that it appears to me there is no power at present existing under the Act as it now stands for ascertaining who are qualified to be electors. The Act of 1872 provides that lists are to be made out by the Municipal Commissioner, but the section does not go on to say that a person's name being placed on the list shall be part of the qualification, and it is an exceedingly arguable point as to whether or not the simple fact of a man having paid the necessary rates would not, apart from his name being entered on the Municipal Commissioner's list, give him a proper qualification. If that be so, the result of course is that the list prepared by the Municipal Commissioner, and supposed to include all the persons properly qualified, are really useless, and on the very day of the election a man may produce his papers in proof of payment of the necessary rates, and claim to exercise his right as an elector. That is one objection, and there are other objections which perhaps I need not specify. It seems to me that it is very desirable, inasmuch as my amended Act is proposed and will come before the Council in a very short time, to take the course which is being followed in passing this short Act, validating the election of the Corporations of 1873 and 1875, and continuing the present Corporation until the end of the year, or until the amended Act shall be passed and come into operation.

His Excellency the President—Then the motion before the Council is that leave be given to introduce the Bill.

The motion having been carried in the affirmative,

The Honourable Mr. Gibbs moved the first reading of the Bill.

The Bill was then read a first time.

The Honourable Mr. Gibbs—In moving the second reading, I will merely state that the Bill which has been drafted by the Honourable the Advocate General has a treble object—first, of legalising all acts and payments, everything that has been done, in fact, by the two Corporations of 1873 and 1875; second, the fixing the action of the Municipal Commissioner in stopping the elections of July of this year; and third, reviving the Corporation which legally died on the 26th of July and continuing it in full force and vigour until the end of the year or such time as may be notified in the Government Gazette. I beg now to move the second reading.

The Bill was accordingly read a second time.

The Honourable Mr. Gibbs—I have now to suggest that the Bill be taken into consideration by the Committee of the whole Council in detail.

The Bill was then considered in detail, the explanatory note to each section being read by the Secretary.

The Honourable Mr Gibbs moved that section I. be amended by the insertion, after the word "respectively," in the 16th line, of the words "or such of them as shall continue to be members of the said Corporation," and also by the substitution of the word "until" for the word "to," in the 18th line.

This amendment was adopted.

Section IV. was amended, on the motion of the Honourable Mr. Gibbs, by the insertion of the word "emoluments" after the word "authorities," in the 9th line.

The Honourable Mr. Gibbs—The Bill having been considered in detail by the Committee of the whole Council, I now move the third reading.

The Bill was read a third time, and passed. His Excellency the President then adjourned the Council to some future day of which notice will be given.

the multitude of soldiers who even slept in the marshes, it is wonderful they have escaped disease, which is the worst enemy they may encounter here. Mosquitos, flies, and other pests make life in camp almost unendurable. It is not possible to sleep until great fatigue makes the body insensible to the tortures of the myriads of insects.

The situation of Kustendjie is much better. The pillaging of the houses by the natives was promptly stopped as soon as reported to the commanding officer there, and an order issued that any native caught destroying or plundering should receive a flogging in the public place. This order was no sooner promulgated than it was supported by a strict edict declaring that assault with intent to wound or injure was punishable with death. Then peace reigned in the town, and the citizens set about organizing a government. They held a meeting, chose five members of a council, two executive, two judicial, and one police. Last night, however, the Governor of the whole of the Dobrudscha, formerly Russian Consul at Tultscha, arrived, and he will immediately reconstruct the Municipal Government and establish order under the Director General, who summoned him here to make similar arrangements as established at Matchin with perfect success. Confidence may be said to be completely restored. The shops and cafes and hotels are open; even a lively café chantant is in operation.

When we arrived there was not a fez in sight. All sorts of hats were hauled out on the occasion. Even a few white caps are now visible. The people are beginning to appreciate the spirit of the troops, and resume their ordinary habits. There is still a strong tendency on the part of the Bulgarians to exchange their national costume for European garments.

The Rapid has not yet departed, but goes to Varna to-night with Colonel Sankey, the English Consul, who will remain no longer. The railway company find their property at Tchernavoda quite uninjured, our communication with Braila will now be quite certain, and it is hoped we may get some stores up the river by steamer.

The Turkish journals report continued fighting near the Balkans, with uncertain success. An attempt was made by the Cossacks at Jeni Zaghra to destroy the railway and telegraphs.

The Bassiret says that great numbers of Mussulman families from various parts of the Danube provinces are flocking to Varna. Considerable distress prevails.

An Egyptian vessel arrived this morning in the Bosphorus with a cavalry regiment completely equipped.

The English naval officers on leave here from Besika have been recalled.

BUCHAREST, JULY 17.

It is stated here that the Turks evacuated and burnt Tchernavoda last night, and that a detachment of the Russian 14th Corps entered the town this morning.

(From our own Correspondent.)

VIENNA, JULY 19.

Portions of the 8th and 9th Russian Army Corps are operating from Nicopolis to the west of Lom Palanka, and one detachment already occupies Azibra. This points to preparations for investing Widdin from the land side while the Roumanians at Kalafat would engage it from the Danube shore. Prince Charles of Roumania is determined to take part in the war, and wishes to convoke an extra session of the Chambers in order to obtain a vote for this purpose. The Roumanian military attaché at the Russian headquarters in Bulgaria states that the fall of Nicopolis is certain to be the signal for Roumania to act. It is said that there has been a disagreement between the Czar and the Grand Duke Nicholas with regard to the plan of further action. The Czar settled the question by deciding that the bulk of the Infantry should not proceed beyond Tirnova until the complete investment of Rustchuk.

Twelve Bulgarian bat alions are forming near Sistova.

CONSTANTINOPLE, JULY 18.

Abdul Kerim Pasha has telegraphed assurances to the Porte that he will cut off the retreat of the Russians who have crossed the Balkans, and only awaits the arrival of the reinforcements under Suleiman Pasha to commence attacking the enemy.

Twenty thousand regular troops and as many volunteers have left the capital for Adrianople.

The Mussulman inhabitants of Adrianople are arriving en masse at Constantinople, and are provided by the Government with lodgings in the Medresses (schools).

CONSTANTINOPLE, JULY 19, 11-15 A. M.

The Minister of Justice, and Mahomed Pasha, the Chief of the Staff, with Generals Savfel and Selim, have gone to Adrianople.

More than 1,000 fugitives, in all, have arrived here from Adrianople. A considerable number have been provided with lodgings by the residents here.

The Djeridie Havadis advises that Hobart Pasha, who is in command of the Black Sea Fleet, has been ordered to bombard all places of importance on the Russian coast.

The same journal announces that the police of Constantinople are now carrying loaded guns on duty.

THE CAMPAIGN IN ASIA.

(THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.)

ERZEROUM, July 18.

The corps from Van has joined the Turkish right wing, and the united forces now encamped near Bayazid.

General Tergukasoff is on the frontier, awaiting reinforcements.

Ahmed Mukhtar Pacha is near Vosinkej, four hours' march east of Kars.

General Louis Melikoff's army has not retreated further than Kurukdara and Yenikej, and is now expecting large reinforcements from Alexandropol, where the Grand Duke Michael is personally pressing forward, the preparations being made with this object. On July 14th twelve regiments of Russian cavalry, with one field battery, reconnoitred the camp of Mukhtar Pacha. After an exchange of cannon shots the Russians fell back. Fresh fighting is expected.

Bayazid is completely deserted by the population, and the villages of the plain are devastated. Their inhabitants have fled, some to Evadjik-Makou, in Persia, and others into Russian territory.

In the plains of Karakilissa and Alashgerd the village houses have been abandoned by the greater portion of their inhabitants.

THE WIMBLEDON RIFLE MEETING.

THE QUEEN'S PRIZE.

THE shooting for the second stage of the Queen's Prize at 800, 900, and 1000 yards, took place on the 17th of July. The Special Reporter of the Standard described the shooting as follows:—"Targets then drawn for, and the competitors were marched off in squads of six to the shooting places of the ten long-range targets lettered from A to K. A boisterous wind was blowing, with slight lulls, during the 800 yards' competition, at the conclusion of which Lieutenant Potts, of the Border Mounted Rifles, was leading with 30 points, Corporal Weston, 12th Surrey, being second with a score of 29, made up of five bulls-eyes and an inner, the corporal missing the target at the fourth shot. Private Burns, of Cornwall, obtained 28 points; Corporal Pattison, 3rd Lanarkshire, Major Pearse, 18th Devonshire (gold medallist of 1875), Serjeant M'Auslan, 6th Dumbartonshire (winner of the Prince of Wales's prize last year and this), and Lieutenant Blackwood, 1st Peebleshire, all scoring 27 points each. Then came five scores of 26, followed by a scale in which the number of points scored grew "small by degrees and beautifully less," ending in seven "misses;" another competitor having made a solitary outer. At the 900 yards, Pattisson was successful in putting up 29, thus bringing his score to an average of inners, viz., 56 points; M'Auslan made 25, missing his two first shots, but putting up five bulls'-eyes in succession with the remaining five, and finishing at this range with a total of 52. Next in order of aggregate scores came Pott and Serjeant Davis, 1st Notts, with 49 each, followed by braces of forty-sevens, forty-sixes, and forty-fives, the scorers of the last-named pointe being Pearse and Private Jamieson, 15th Lancashire, the latter having made scores of 22 and 23 respectively at 800 and 900 yards. There were also two forty-fours, four forty-threes, two forty-twos, two forty-ones, and one aggregate score of forty completed at this range. Contrary to the usual rule, under which the contest has generally been finished at the 1000 yards by about half-past three o'clock, the competition at this range was not commenced until half-past four, and a quarter of an hour before that time there seemed imminent danger that the concluding stage of the Queen's Prize would be shot for amid rainfall, with a sharp shower then falling; but it passed over quickly, and no further showers fell prior to gun fire. When the shooting at the 1000 yards commenced, a large crowd had gathered on the firing point, the greatest interest centering round the A and B targets, at which Pattison, Pott, and Davis were shooting, and at the H target, M'Auslan's position. Pottison with his first shot scored and outer, and M'Auslan made a bull's eye, thus bringing himself within one point of the leader. Pott and Davis also started with inners. Pattison in his next three shots scored eleven points, while M'Auslan only made six, Pott and Davis also having a "miss." M'Auslan was the first to finish, with 69 points, and Pattison, who missed his last three shots, left off with the same total. Directly afterwards it was stated that Serjeant Jolliffe, of the Isle of Wight, had compiled the same number of points. The partisans of the Scotchmen were jubilant, and gave vent to their feelings by applause. Meanwhile, Jamieson, at the C target, had been left comparatively unnoticed; but as soon as it was rumoured that he had made 21 points by his first five shots, and only wanted another four to beat the leading scores, the excitement became concentrated on his target. At his sixth essay he missed, but with his seventh shot he made an inner, bringing up his total at this range to 25, and his aggregate score to 70, or one point in advance of the three ties already named. Jamieson then let go from the ground, was unconscious of his good luck, until one of his friends advanced and warmly congratulated him on being the winner, when the spectators, taking the cue, lustily cheered the rifle premier of 1877. The usual ceremony of checking the score and examining the rifle was next gone through in the council tent, after which his Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge presented Jamieson with his badge and prize certificate, at the same time congratulating him on his good luck. By this time Jamieson, who is a native of Dublin, had been claimed as a Scotchman, and accordingly several members of the Lanarkshire Volunteers, the London Scottish, and his own corps were in readiness, and, hoisting him on to their shoulders, the party proceeded, to the strains of "See the conquering hero comes," to the Victorine, where the loving cup was passed round.

The Camp of the London Scottish was next visited, where a photographic portrait of the Queen's prisoner of the year was taken. Once more the precedents at Wimbledon have been confirmed, Corporal Betts, the silver medallist, being altogether outdistanced at the long ranges, having only scored 36. Last year the gold medal was won with 74 points, and in 1875 with 73 points; therefore, as the targets in this competition have not been altered, the shooting shows a slight falling off in quality, although it should be remembered that the competitors have had a strong and gusty wind blowing to-day throughout the whole of the competition. The following are the scores:—

Holloway's Pills.—Liver and Stomach.—Hot weather with chilly mornings and evenings always produces derangement of the digestive and assimilating organs, which demands early attention. For the speedy cure of indigestion nothing equals Holloway's Pills. They have long been recognised both at home and abroad as the safest and most effectual remedy for sick headache, nervousness, pains in the stomach, flatulency, bilious-ness, nausea, simple and bilious diarrhœa, dysentery, dirty skin, and torpid bowels. Holloway's Pills protect the system from the deleterious effects of malaria and variable temperatures, thus proving themselves most valuable at this season, when the organs of digestion are most sorely tried. They may be advantageously taken without hindrance to business or pleasure.
